

OT Practices in Patients with COPD (CPD-AG08)

Course Objectives

To empower participants with practical skills and updated knowledge for managing patients with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) in community settings

Target Participants	Junior OTs working in geriatric community settings; OTs from other specialties/settings
----------------------------	--

Course Content

- ❖ Introduction to COPD: an overview of the conditions, its symptoms, and the progression
- ❖ Assessment techniques and methods
- ❖ Intervention strategies: practical applications and considerations
- ❖ Case studies
- ❖ Q&A

The Speaker: Ms. Lau Wai Lee, Cherry

Senior Occupational Therapist of a Public Hospital in Hong Kong

Date	18 Jan 2025 (Saturday)
Time	0930 – 1230 (Registration starts at 0900)
Venue	Lecture Theatre (2/F, Tung Wah College Mong Kok Campus, Cheung Chin Lan Hong Building, 98 Shantung Street, Kln)
Capacity	80 (First come, first served)
Fee and CPD credits	$ 450 for 3 credits
Language	Cantonese and English
Enquiry	Dr. Larry Lee Email: larrylee@twc.edu.hk Tel: 3725 6246

Online registration ends on or before 8

Jan 2025, or when full:

<https://www.twc.edu.hk/limesurvey/index.php/559151>

Payment link will be sent to your email address within two working days after receiving your registration form. Please settle your payment within three days to secure your spot.

About our speaker:

Name:	Ms. LAU Wai-Lee Cherry
Years of OT Practice	Since 1997
Correspondence	E-mail: lauwlc@ha.org.hk
Current Job Title	Senior Occupational Therapist
Current Place of Work	Public Hospital in Hong Kong
Clinical Expertise	Respiratory Rehabilitation, Community Geriatric Care, Case Management Support, etc.
Clinical Experience	Ms. Lau has been providing clinical service in the public hospital for over 20 years. She is now OT in-charge of chest unit, medical extended care, orthopedic and spinal center to provide in/ day and out-patient service. She has the experience in providing OT service to patients suffering from various medical & geriatric conditions across from in-patient to community phase. Ms. Lau has been active in various clinical service development and professional training by setting-up clinical protocol/guideline, audit exercise, clinical research and conduct specialty training.

Points to note:

1. Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.
2. Ensure you provide accurate email and contact phone numbers to receive payment links and updated notifications.
3. A payment link will be emailed within two working days after receiving your registration form. Please complete your payment within three days to secure your spot. A hard copy of the payment receipt will be distributed at the registration counter on the spot. An electronic certificate will be emailed in four weeks.
4. The course fee is non-transferable and non-refundable. It will only be refunded when Tung Wah College cancels the course due to unforeseeable circumstances.
5. For the adverse weather arrangement, please visit our website for details: https://www.twc.edu.hk/en/Administration Units/reg/our_service/current_student/adverse_weather_arrangement. In short, the course held in the morning will be canceled if the typhoon signals pre-No. 8 / No. 8 or above / Black Rainstorm Warning is in force at or after 6:15 am. You will receive an email notification regarding any course change on or before 07:30 am.
6. Participants are expected to arrive on time and attend the entire duration of the training course for an attendance certificate.
7. Tung Wah College reserves the right to make the final decision in any dispute.
8. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Dr. Larry Lee.